

Todd Andrew Hager

President & Chief Operating Officer

Todd established Edward Andrews Homes in 2007, drawing from more than 20 years of industry experience. Since its inception, he has grown the company from a start-up operation to a top 20 Atlanta homebuilder.

As President and Chief Operating Officer of Edward Andrews Homes, Todd provides the overall direction and momentum for the company's construction, marketing, finance and sales divisions. In addition, he is intimately involved with new home product development to ensure that Edward Andrews continues to produce industry-leading, innovative home designs.

Prior to joining Edward Andrews Homes, Todd was Principal and President of PEC Development Group, where he built an organization known throughout Atlanta for developing top selling, innovative and expertly designed communities. During his tenure at PEC, Todd directly oversaw the development of more than 50 communities containing more than 5,000 lots.

Todd is active in the Greater Atlanta Homebuilders Association, Atlanta's Council for Quality Growth, the National Association of Homebuilders, and the Urban Land Institute. He received his Bachelor of Science in civil engineering from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University.
