

Lisa Carter

Senior Vice President of Sales

As Senior Vice President of Sales for Edward Andrews Homes, Lisa joined the team with more than 15 years of industry experience.

Lisa's uncanny ability to drive sales is based on her keen focus on the customer's unique desires and needs. Over the years, Lisa has used this intuitive gift to build an enviable career that fosters corporate growth and exceeds business objectives, while maintaining a positive outlook that puts the customer first.

Lisa joined Edward Andrews Homes after a successful career as the Vice President of Sales for John Wieland Homes and Neighborhoods. During her 15 year tenure with the firm, she rose to positions of increasing responsibility and scope as her talents, management expertise and industry insights grew. Prior to her transition into real estate sales, Lisa was a retail buyer for Hart Schaffner Marx, Rich's Department Stores and Neiman Marcus.

Lisa is a member of the Atlanta Board of Realtors Million Dollar Club and the Greater Atlanta Home Builders Association's Sales and Marketing Council.

